Information on the Keynote Speakers

Susanne Mitko is the 2009-2010 Missouri State Teacher of the Year. Susanne is in her 19th year of teaching and teaches social studies at Bernard Campbell Middle School in Lee's Summit, Mo. Susanne represents the very best of what social studies teachers can do for their students by creating lessons and a caring classroom that challenges and builds both the knowledge and process skills that students need to succeed in today's competitive global environment.

John Meyers, is a Kansas City firefighter with an avid interest in local history. He was a crew member on the bi-centennial commemoration in 2007 and recently competed in the Missouri 340 river race in a replica Choctaw canoe. His experiences allow him to bring the history alive through re-enactments that he performs for school groups and scout troops. His story-telling and demonstrations reiterate the need for authentic experiences in the classroom.

Other Conference Information

Participate in a free tour of the historic Old Courthouse and visit the restored courtrooms. The Old Courthouse was the site of many historic trials including the first two trials of the Dred Scott case in 1847 and 1850. Spaces are limited so you must RSVP.
